Pretty or Not.

To be pretty is the great object of almost every living woman—even of those who have a "mission;" and who, if truth were told, dress themselves as becomingly as possible, even while they lecture upon the impropriety of doing so. Beautiful women spend a great deal of thought upon their own charms, and homely women grow homelier through fretting because they are not handsome. Men, at least while they are young, are very like women in this respect; though they hide their feelings better. There is one comfort to the homely ones, however. After you come to know people very intimately, you do not know whether they are pretty or not. Their "ways" make an impression on you, but not their noses and ears, their eyes and mouths. In time, the soul expresses itself to you, and it is that which you see.

A man who has been married twenty years scarcely knows what his wife looks like. He may declare that he does, and tell you that she is a bewitching little blonde, with soft blue eyes, long after she is fat, and red and forty, because the image of his early love is in his heart, and he doesn't see her as she is today, but as she was when he courted her. Or, being an indifferent husband, he may not know she is the fine woman that other people think her. You have known men who have married the plainest women, and think them beauties; and you know beauties who are quite thrown away on men who value a wife for her success as a housewife.

As far as one's effect on strangers is to be taken into consideration, beauty is valuable and very valuable. So, if you have it, rejoice; but if you have it not, be content. Take care of your heart, your soul, your mind, and your manners, and you will make for yourself that beauty which will render you lovely to those who are nearest and dearest to you.

Wise Expenditure.

When a young professional man of limited means designs to marry, he naturally desires to win a prudent, economical wife, and, with that idea in his mind, often fondly imagines he is acting wisely in choosing a wife from a family poorer than his own. He fancies that a young lady brought up with few luxuries will be simple in her ideas. He calculates that, having never had money to spend, she will be moderate in her expenditures; that, being a poor man's daughter, she is the better fitted for the part of a poor man's wife; and that, having lived in a household supported on, say, three hundred a year, she will be easily able to make both ends meet where there is two thousand. He could hardly make a greater mistake. There are brilliant exceptions, no doubt; but the girl who has never had any money to spend, and who has never seen money spent, has no idea of how to spend it when she has it. She fancies that an additional two hundred a year will buy a multitude of luxuries heretofore unattainable, and launches out into a series of extravagances, which soon awakens her husband to a sense of the mistake he has made. We do not believe in marrying for money; but a man with a small income consults his future comfort to much better purpose by choosing a wife where there is money, even if he is not to have any share of it with her. If she has seen her father give a hundred pounds for a picture or a horse, she at least knows how much such things cost; and if, as in most families of the kind, the young ladies have a regular allowance, she is able to tell how much will be required for dress, and how impossible it will be to have any of the things which an inexperienced wife will wish for and perhaps expect. She has also the advantage of knowing how little married happiness really depends upon such things, and how small is the gratification to be obtained from possessing them. Accustomed to several servants, she understands how to manage them, and knows what care will be needed to get the work of even a small house done by two; and so she helps them as much as possible. Servants like a mistress of this sort, and respect her, even if she is not a good housekeeper; while, so far from trying to impose upon her inexperience, as they might impose upon one unused to their management, they endeavor to be careful and saving in their own department. But such mistresses are rare, and the man who has one of them for a wife is fortunate.

MIND AND HEALTH.—The mental condition has far more influence upon the bodily health than is generally supposed. It is no doubt true that ailments of the body cause depressing and morbid conditions of the mind; but it is no less true that sorrowful and disagreeable emotions produce disease in persons who, uninfluenced by them, would be in sound health—or, if disease is not produced, the functions are disordered. Not even physicians always consider the importance of this fact. Agreeable emotions set in motion nervous currents, which stimulate blood, brain, and every part of the system into healthful activity; while grief, disappointment of feeling, and brooding over present sorrows or past mistakes, depress all the vital forces. To be physically well one must, in general, be happy. The reverse is not always true; one may be happy and a constant sufferer in body.

WILL YOU?—"Young ladies have the privilege of saying anything they please during leap-year," said a young lady to a gentleman, eyeing him out of the corner of her eyes with a sweet look. His heart gave a great bound, and, while he wondered if she was going to ask the question which he had so long desired and feared to do, he answered, "Yes."—"And the young men must not refuse," said she—"No, no! How could they?" sighed he,—"Well then," said she, "will you——" He fell on his knees, and said, "Anything you ask, darling!"—"Wait till I get through. Will you take a walk, and not hang around our house so much?" And he walked.

R. B. THOMPSON, DENTIST, has returned from San Francisco and resumed the practice of his profession at the late residence of Sheriff Harris on Broad Street, near Fort. *

Science and Art.

LIGHT.—The more light admitted to apartments the better for those who occupy them. Light is as necessary to sound health as it is to vegetable life. Exclude it from plants, and the consequences are disastrous. They cannot be perfected without its vivifying influence. It is a fearful mistake to curtain and blind windows so closely, for fear of injuring the furniture by exposure to the sun's rays, that rooms positively gather elements in darkness which engender disease. Let in the light often, and fresh air, too, or suffer the penalty of aches, and pains, and long doctors' bills, which might have been avoided.

Art Gossip.

Mr. J. Q. A. Ward's colossal equestrian statue of General George H. Thomas was on private exhibition in New York previous to its removal to Philadelphia for casting in bronze. It was received with extraordinary favor by newspaper critics and laymen. It is about thirteen feet high from the plinth, the figure of the rider being nine feet and ten inches, and is intended by the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, who ordered it of Mr. Ward, to commemorate their appreciation of their late commander's patriotic valour. The verdict passed upon its artistic merits in the leading journals of New York City, while singularly unanimous and eulogistic, does not exceed the limits of justness and candour. The general is firmly seated upon a thoroughbred Kentucky stallion, his left hand holding the reins, and his right suspended by his side, and grasping the rim of his felt hat. His face, imperturbed and even majestic, is turned toward the enemy, whom one may suppose him to be viewing from the crest of a hill which his steed has just ascended, the sight affecting the animal much more vigorously than his master, his nostrils being dilated, his head uplifted, and his body excited to the extremity of his bushy tail. The modelling is extremely learned and subtle in the case of both horse and rider; and the simplicity of the treatment is noticeable—there is so little show of military millinery and equipment. All this tends to unity of impression, and the most notable feature of the work is the skill with which the artist has made the general's head the central object of attention. To it all other parts converge their force; and, calm as it is, the fiery mien of the war-horse does not tend to lessen its importance, or imperil its function as the key-note of the whole plastic structure. Mr. Ward has given four years to this work, and in it has excelled not only himself, but also, we think, every other American sculpture who has made an equestrian statue. It will be erected in the city of Washington, and for generations will reflect honor upon the soldier whom it commemorates and the artist whom it expresses.

PAINTING BY PROFESSOR MULLER.—A feature of the exhibition at the French Gallery, London, is Professor L. C. Muller's large canvas whereon he has represented the "Market-place, Cairo," a picture which the Austrian Government loaned the Director of the French Gallery. "In the great open place," says a London journal, "we see all manner of people assembled (with camels interspersed), buying, selling, playing, begging, with all the usual life and variety seen even in Western lands under like conditions, only here we have the broad, bright daylight of the East, and the swarthy face and lithe limbs of the half-naked children of the sun. The scene altogether is of a very realistic nature, and must have been studied on the spot. The time the learned Vienne professor must have consumed in painting it may be judged by how long it takes the ordinary visitor to go over leisurely and satisfactorily the many details he combines so skilfully and works into a pictorial whole."

PAINTINGS BY COUTURE.—According to a Richmond journal (The State), there are several paintings by Couture in that city. "Three of them are owned by the sculpture, Edward V. Valentine, who was a pupil in the life-school of the distinguished painter at Paris. There are a full-length, life-size study of "An Italian Bagpipe-player," a study in oil of a female head for his picture of "The Reapers," and a study in crayon for his picture of the boy blowing soap-bubbles, which is now in the collection of a lady in New York. The other works are owned by Professor William W. Valentine. Among them is a crayon study of the head of "The Judge," made for Couture's picture, which was exhibited in the Metropolitan Museum in New York. The others consist of drawings which were made for the celebrated paintings in the church of St. Eustache, in Paris."

Bavarian Superstitions.

A large proportion of the Bavarian peasantry unfortunately entertain the superstitious notion that fire kindled by lightening is not to be extinguished. When such an accident happens they are discouraged, and do hardly anything to check the progres of the flames.

A funeral must never pass through a tilled field, not even in winter, though it might considerably shorten the way. The peasant is fully persuaded that a field through which a funeral has passed becomes barren. Except on extraordinary occasions, no funerals are allowed on Mondays and Fridays.

A peasant who is in search of a wife never goes, except on a Thursday or Sunday, into the house where he expects to make his choice. The bride and bridegroom are not to give their bare hand to anybody on the day of their marriage except to each other at the alter, otherwise they are threatened with poverty during the whole course of their union. It is also a very bad sign if, when the bride returns from church, she finds anybody on the threshold of her door.

When a young girl finds a leaf of trefoil divided into four instead of three parts, it is a sign that she will be married within a year; at all events, she carefully preserves this leaf till her wedding-day.

On Christmas Eve the countrymen are accustomed to drive out a great deal in sledges. They think that this will cause their hemp to be more abundant and higher. They do not fail to visit the ale-house and to drink heartily the same evening, being convinced that this is a way to make them look well till the following Christmas. They never destroy crickets by fire, being persuaded that those which escape will destroy their linen and clothes.

When a peasant loses his way in the wood after sunset, he avoids calling any person to show him the way, being convinced that in any case the evil spirit of the forest would cause him to plunge still deeper into its recesses.

Money is first mentioned in Genesis, twenty first chapter, about 1864 B. C., but was probably silver weighed. Silver was coined at Rome, about 1000 years afterwards. Coining with a die was first practiced in the year A. D. 1617. Guineas are so called because they were coined from gold brought from Guinea.

THE VACANCY AT CARIBOO.

About a week since we had the honor to call public attention to the fact that a vacancy exists in the Cariboo representation. In doing so we pointed out the modus operandi necessary to be followed to draw the Speaker's attention to the fact. Immediately on the heels of the article two members of the House—both members of the Government, we believe—served the necessary notice on the Speaker. That gentleman, in compliance with the law, "forthwith" addressed "his warrant to the Registrar of the Supreme Court for the issue of a new writ for the election of a member to fill the vacancy," and it then became the duty of the Registrar to issue a new writ for an election to fill the vacancy. A week has elapsed since the warrant reached the hands of the Registrar, and the new writ has not yet been issued. It should have been forwarded by yesterday's mail; but we hear that it was not forwarded. Rumor hath it that the Government are delaying the writ until such time as it may suit the convenience of the Premier to proceed to Cariboo in state—ostensibly to hold Clinton Assizes, but really to electioneer for the return of some obedient tool to the House. The duty of the Registrar is very clear under the Act. He has no alternative but to obey the law and issue the writ. The Government have nothing to do with it—the power was purposely taken from their hands and placed in those of the Registrar by the House, whose laws and mandates must be respected and obeyed. If the signature of the Governor is required, his honor returned last evening, and all the Registrar has got now to do is to forward writs to the returning officer. This, we hope, he has already done, and that Dame Rumor will be shown to be a lying jade.

"Sunday Excursions."

LETTER FROM A SAN ERANCISCO CLERGYMAN.

EDITOR COLONIST.—Through the the courtsey of a neighbor who receives your paper regularly I have the pleasure of its perusal. In your issue of August 24th I notice a contributed article with the above heading in which it is maintained that Sunday excursions are an infraction of the commandment to "Remember the Sabbath day to it keep holy," and the Christian people of Victoria are called upon to unite in "frowning down" those who thus ignore the claims of our Creator, trample his laws under foot" and "dishonor the Christian name." Will you allow a Christian clergyman a brief review of this article, which is signed "One Who Observes," and to ask your correspondent to observe carefully the following facts which seem to have escaped his observations hitherto:

1. The day of the week required to be kept holy by the 4th Commandment was the seventh day of the week—Saturday—not Sunday, which is the first. If, without any scripture authority, many Christians have chosen to drop the observance of the seventh day as holy and observe in its place the first, which is one of the days on which the Commandment requires work to be done, is that any reason why they should denounce those who do not observe the first day of the week as "ignoring the claims of our Creator?" It is said that "people who live in glass houses should not throw stones;" and surely those who take such liberties with an express command are hardly consistent in finding fault if others do not obey it strictly.

2. The 4th Commandment does not prohibit recreation on the Sabbath, but labor only; and accordingly the Jews, while strictly abstaining from work on that day in deference to the command, were accustomed, as Calmet tells us, to indulge in divers amusements and healthful recreations. The prophet Nehemiah, as we read, reproved the people because they were inclined at one time to spend the whole of a day designated like the Sabbath as "holy to the Lord" in solemn, religious service (see chap. 9) and exhorted them to go forth and feast and enjoy themselves in the latter part of the day—which they accordingly did and "made great mirth," we are told, "because they understood the words of the prophet." It is the scriptures of truth which assure us that "A merry heart doeth good as a medicine;" and also that "It is lawful to do well on the Sabbath day." So that if Scripture authority could be found, as it cannot—Calvin and Luther, Baxter and Bunyan being judges—for applying the 4th Commandment to the first day of the week, there would still be no reason for regarding healthful recreations as a desecration of the day. "One who Observes" should certainly notice this.

3. While it is the undeniable privilege of Christians to observe Sunday, if they prefer, with Puritanic strictness, devoting it exclusiveiy to religious exercises, public and private, and while they should be protected by law from wanton interference with such exercises, however protracted; it is equally the privilege of others, if they choose, to devote a part of the day to healthful and innocent recreation—as is generally done by the best Christians on the European Continent. Asceticism is not a factor of genuine Christianity; and as the noble preacher Robertson of Brighton observes,—It is not by the recreations of the people, even on Sunday, that the Christian name is dishonored, but by the pride and impurity, the deceit and dishonesty of professing Christians. FRATER.

The Esquimalt Drydock Matter in the House of Commons.

COL. ARBUTHNOT, M.P., QUESTIONS THE FIRST LORD OF THE ADMIRALTY.

What the Army and Navy Gazette thinks of the Affair.

In these days of worrying pettifogging details to shreds, it is refreshing to observe the broad, imperial nature of the information Colonel Arbuthnot is, bit by bit, extracting from the heads of our public departments. The gallant Colonel, whether intentionally or not, has neatly exhibited to public view a most anomalous state of things respecting the publication of information of a naval and military nature. It is a well-known fact that the "Reports on Australian Defences" have been printed and laid before the Colonial Legislatures, and can be bought in any of the colonies concerned by any one for the small charge of one penny, or thereabouts. Colonel Arbuthnot, some time ago, asked to have these reports laid on the table of the House, but Sir M. Hicks-Beach declined on the grounds of public expediency. The other night the same member asked the First Lord of the Admiralty to lay on the table any correspondence relating to the Esquimalt Dock, "which could, without prejudice to the public service," be so produced; but the First Lord in reply stated "it would not be to the public interest to produce it." Now it so happens that last year this correspondence was laid before the Provincial Legislature of British Columbia, and by it ordered to be printed, and being a Parliamentary paper, it also can be bought. Thus it appears that under our existing system, what is sauce for the old goose is not sauce for the young ganders; in other words, that colonial legislatures may publish information of a naval and military nature which it is not desirable in "the public interest" to lay before the House of Commons! Surely this is rather a serious matter, worthy of the attention of Earl Grey or Lord Norton, who, in the Nineteenth Century, have recently been ventilating colonial questions more than they are in the habit of doing in the Upper House. It is not, however, merely the constitutional confusion which Colonel Arbuthnot has dragged to the light, he has judiciously obtained information on points of supreme Naval importance. For example, his continued questions concerning the Colonial Docks (Loan) Act, 1865, have been answered by the First Lord of the Admiralty in terms which go far to show its virtual failure to produce adequate "dock" accommodation for our squadrons abroad at many important positions; while Sir Michael Hicks Beach has been forced to confess that he "believes" none of the Colonies "have availed themselves of the provisions of the Colonial Naval Defence Act, 1865;" in short, that this boasted plan of Lord Cardwell's, for securing Colonial co-operation with the Royal Navy for purposes of general protection of British commerce, has proved a shameful failure. It cannot be pleaded that, like the "boy-soldier" system, which is the work of the same hand, this Act has not had time to be fairly tried, for it has been fourteen years in operation. It, however, bears a family likeness to the "juvenile Army" arrangement, by reason of its pitiful want of success, though it differs from it, inasmuch as it has done no harm, though powerless to accomplish any good. But Colonel Arbuthnot has not confined his operations to general principles, for his questions have produced an authoritative statement respecting dock accommodation for our Pacific Squadron. The First Lord confirms the gallant Colonel's evident misgivings on this point, by acknowledging that "the necessity for dock accommodation on the Pacific Station has been urged by the Admirals commanding." Successive Admirals have represented to successive "Boards" the absolute need of such means of repair, and it would be interesting to know who, under our present Imperial system, would be responsible to the Empire for neglecting to provide for so obvious a naval requirement, if by reason of its non-fulfilment, British naval prestige or power ever suffers diminution or actual loss. Mr. Smith, however, apologetically adds, "It is doubtful whether Esquimault would be the best position for the work the squadron has to perform." If it is doubtful whether Esquimault is the best position for the dock, how comes it that the Imperial Government has promised a gift of £50,000 in aid of its erection at Esquimalt, on faith of which promise British Columbia has already spent some £40,000 on preliminary work, site, &c.? There must have been culpable negligence on the part of past administrations to commit us to the erection of a dock at a "doubtful" position. The concluding sentence of the First Lord's reply is still more instructive, as showing the extraordinary administrative chaos from which our Imperial arrangements acutely suffer. "I am," he says, "not aware how much progress has been made with the dock at Esquimalt." It is certainly time we thought about creating an Admiralty Intelligence Department even if its only use be to spare a painstaking, business-like First Lord from being forced to make a humiliating confession of ignorance regarding the progress of a great naval work towards which we are pledged to give £50,000. Possibly such a department might ingeniously discover that unless we are to make some new acquisition in the Pacific, there is no site available for the much-needed dock in our possession beyond the borders of British Columbia, and further, it might, possibly, incidentally point out that the 9th clause of the terms of Union, under which that Province joined the Dominion, alludes to the "continued maintenance of the naval station at Esquimalt," and that this fact cannot, therefore, be lightly disregarded by the Imperial Government which sanctioned and approved the Act of Confederation. Colonel Arbuthnot has done no small service inopportunely eliciting, not information, but an official acknowledgment of its absence in a department where he and the country have the best right to expect to find it. Still more recent questions put by Colonel Arbuthnot drew forth replies clearly illustrating their importance. In the reply, for example, to the first question respecting the Esquimalt Dock, but little information was given; but when, again, closely pressed, the First Lord mentioned the imperial promise of £50,000, the stipulation contained in the Act of Confederation, and the money (£41,799) already spent by British Columbia. By a comparison of the two replies of Mr. W. H. Smith, it would appear more than probable that he is indebted to Colonel Arbuthnot for having been the means of compelling his attention to facts which, in the absence of a Naval Intelligence Department, he might not otherwise have learned. He would not, however, say what site for a dock other than Esquimalt is available, as "it would not be for the advantage of the public service to discuss the question." It is certainly not for the public advantage that from Behring's Straits to Cape Horn, her Majesty's ships should have no dock; nor would it be altogether detrimental to the public interest to know whether the implied choice of sites is, or is not, merely an official "drag across the true scent," justifiably used by the First Lord, if annexation of a new naval position in the Pacific be seriously contemplated, but a wholly unjustifiable method of diverting public attention from its pressing duties and immediate responsibilities respecting the Pacific fleet? Again, in answer to a question respecting admission into the Regular Army from the military establishments of other colonies than the Dominion, the gallant Colonel was informed of this extraordinary fact, viz., "that no reply could be given . . . . until it is ascertained whether a college exists in any other of our colonies equal in position to the college at Kingston." If the Colonial Minister does not know such a simple fact as this, the Colonial Office must be as much in want of an Intelligence Department as the Admiralty. Can anybody conceive the Government of Germany being in ignorance as to what military colleges existed within German territory? The following evening of this memorable reply, Colonel Arbuthnot moved for the production of the "Reports on Australian defences already presented to Colonial Legislatures, and published in Australian newspapers." Sir M. Hicks Beach again opposed, on the ground of the inevitable "public interest," and innocently enough pleaded "that they dealt with deficiencies in the defences of Australia," but he added, "these reports had been forwarded to this country, and on their arrival copies would be placed in the library." It is, at all events, comforting to know that, in these days of rapid communication, reports on deficiencies of British defences in the South Pacific, dated early in 1877, only take a very little over two years to pass from the hands of Australian newspapers' printers' devils into those of Members of a so-called Imperial Parliament. Colonel Arbuthnot is teaching us a good deal, and we are heartily thankful, for there is much to learn. Meanwhile, let it be asked why naval and military M. P.'s are, with this one solitary exception, dumb on the subject, and apparently blind to colonial progress!—Army and Navy Gazette.

THE WAR IN ZULULAND!

Capture of King Cetewayo!

HE ASKS TO BE SHOT!

RESUMPTION OF HOSTILITIES!

[Exclusive Dispatch to The Colonist.]

LONDON, Sept. 19.—A dispatch from Cape Town says Sir Garnet Wolseley hopes that Chief Secocoeni will yield without fighting, but those on the spot say this is doubtful, as it is known that the Chief has lately only with difficulty been dissuaded after five hours' council from murdering two officers sent to treat with him concerning prisoners.

Details of the capture of King Cetewayo show that while the King was being watched on one side by Lord Gifford and some scouts Major Marter, with a detachment of the first dragoons, approached him from the other. Lord Gifford, whose presence was unknown to the King, intended to defer attack until the nightfall so as to prevent the King from escaping in the dense bush. Cetewayo had caught a glimpse of the dragoons, but in consequence of the bad condition of the ground they could not approach quietly. Major Marter, however, directed a removal of all noisy accoutrements and sent a native contingent ahead. These surrounded the kraal where the King had taken refuge and Major Marter then rode up and called to Cetewayo to come out of his tent. The King, after some parley, complied. He preserved a dignified demeanor and asked to be shot.

A correspondent at Cape Town telegraphs that Cetewayo had twenty-three followers when he was captured.

A dispatch dated Cape Town, Sept. 2nd, says operations against the Chief Secocoeni will be resumed. Sir Garnet Wolseley goes to the Transvaal on the fifth inst, when all the troops will be withdrawn from Zululand except a small column engaged in pacifying the northwest.

THE FLEMING CUP.—The competition for the silver cup presented by the late Capt Fleming takes place at Clover Point rifle range and at New Westminster this afternoon, commencing punctually at half-past 1 o'clock. The firing is from the 300 and 500 yards ranges—five rounds from each. Private Tate, N.W.R., is the present holder of the trophy and should he prove successful again to-day he becomes its actual possessor. The competition is open to all members of the Provincial Militia.

THE ceremony of laying the foundation stone of the new Eddystone Lighthouse, a building the erection of which is due to the decay of the rock on which Smeaton's celebrated structure now stands, was successfully accomplished on the 19th ult. by the Duke of Edinburgh, Master of the Trinity Corporation, who was accompanied by the Prince of Wales.

The Fire at New Westminster.

Messrs. King & Co. hold the following insurance polices on their cannery, destroyed by fire at New Westminster on Thursday afternoon last: Scottish Commercial Co., $10,000; Phœnix Co., $5,000; North British and Mercantile Co., $3,000; Imperial Co., $2,500; Northern Co., $2,500. The building, stock and plant were thus insured for $23,000—an amount which, it is thought, will almost cover the loss. The establishment was one of the most complete and best appointed canneries on Fraser river. It was finished in the spring of 1878 and was fitted throughout with machinery and appliances of modern design and excellent material. The output of the cannery during this season was about 6,000 cases, of which 3,500 cases were shipped to England a few days since per bark Rover of the Seas. At the time of the fire there were 1575 cases in the establishment ready for shipment. The several insurance companies interested will appoint an agent to proceed to the scene of the fire and investigate the circumstances in connection with it.

FURNITURE MANUFACTORY.—One of the most recent and substantial improvements in the heart of the city is the extensive brick addition to Mr. J. Sehl's spacious furniture store on Government street. The new building, which consists of three stories, has a frontage on Langley street of 64 feet and a depth of 63 feet. It will be used for the manufacture of almost every description of furniture. The machinery will be situated on the ground floor, the second floor will comprise warerooms and the cabinetmakers' department and on the third floor there will be several finishing-rooms. The engine and boiler necessary for driving the machinery will be of local manufacture, but many of the appliances, such as the planer and shaver, will have to be imported. Mr. Sehl commenced moving into the new premises yesterday, but he does not expect to have the machinery in position and running order for six weeks or perhaps two months.

MARINE.—The barkentine Amelia arrived in Nanaimo harbor under sail on Tuesday morning last, having on board a deck cargo of lumber from Port Blakely, W.T., mills. She will load 500 tons of coal at the V.C.Co.'s shutes and then proceed to Honolulu....The ship Indiana, loading at South Wellington coal mine for San Francisco, completed her cargo on Thursday and will be towed to sea by the steamer Alexander....The cargo of the ship Blue Jacket, now on her way to San Francisco from Departure Bay, consists of 2280 tons of Wellington coal.... The ship Topgallant and the bark Sierra Nevada are on the way from San Francisco for cargoes of Wellington coal.... The bark Eva H. Fisk cleared from San Francisco on the 3d inst. for Departure Bay, there to load a cargo of South Wellington coal.

FROM THE EAST COAST.—The steamer Cariboo-Fly arrived here at 5:30 p.m. yesterday from Comox, Nanaimo and East Coast settlements with the mails and the following passengers: Mr. and Mrs. Wolfenden, Mrs. Willemar, Mrs. Raper, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. J. Brown, Mrs. McCutcheon, Mrs. Robb, Mrs. Rutland, Mrs. Maynard, Mrs. J. H. Evans, Miss Pleace, Miss McCutcheon, Miss Watts, Miss Duncan, Rev. Everly, Lt.-Gov. Richards, Messrs. D. Smith, M. Bray, A. Raper, O. Duncan and several others.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The mail steamship Alaska sails from Esquimalt for San Francisco at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The following passengers had been booked at the agents' office in this city up to 5 p.m. yesterday: Mrs. Trounce, Mrs. Gibson, A. G. Elliott, D. Ross, Miss M. Seymour, Mrs. M. A. Molineux, Miss Jeffree, Mrs. E. DeBurt, A. N. Shillingford, wife and child, Mrs. A. Cox, W. J. Jeffree, G. W. Dawson, G. T. Hawley, wife and child, Mrs. Resing, and 6 in the steerage.

QUARTZ DISCOVERY AND HILL DIGGINGS. Phil Ripper, the venerable prospector, came in from the Leech River section yesterday. He brought specimens of rock said to be silverbearing from a 7-foot ledge in Deception Gulch, and a few grains of rusty gold taken from a 25-foot tunnel which he ran into the bench or hillside of Wolf Creek. The specimens are interesting, and would appear to support the theory of old miners that "some day or another Leech river would astonish the world."

FIRE DEPARTMENT ELECTION.—The nomination of candidates for the Chief and Assistant Engineerships of the Fire Department will take place on the 29th inst., at noon, and in the event of a contest the election will be held on the 6th proximo, the poll remaining open from noon until 4 p.m.

THE steamer Wilson G. Hunt left at 8 a.m. yesterday for New Westminster with the following passengers:—Mrs. E. Dickenson, Mrs. Geo. Chadsey, Mrs. Sinclair, Mrs. Ross, Messrs. Ross, Jas. Reid, Louis Pelkie, F. Lord, E. C. Tate, J. Laidlaw and several others.

THE steamer Enterprise left at 8 a. m. yesterday for New Westminster with the mails and a good freight. Amongst those on board were Miss Vipond, Rev. Mr. Derrick, Rev. Mr. Good, Rev. Mr. Smith, Capt. Reveley, Messrs. B. W. Pearse, F. N. Gisborne, A. W. Smith, and W. J. French.

MUNICIPAL POLICE COURT.—At this Court yesterday Richard Hughes was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labor for stealing a pile of coal in Oriental Alley. A summons issued against a white man for assaulting an Indian was dismissed.

PERSONAL.—Peter Donohue, Esq., one of California's millionaires and President of the San Francisco gas works, who has been spending two or three weeks in this Province, leaves this afternoon on board the steamship Alaska.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—It is reported that after General Grant has been accorded a public reception in San Francisco he will pay a brief visit to this Province and Oregon.

THE steamer Pilot was launched from Laing's ways at four o'clock yesterday afternoon and towed alongside Engelhardt & Co.'s wharf.

BURNS MOUNTAIN QUARTZ.—A dispatch from Mr. Beedy announces that the miners have reached the ledge and that first-class rock is being crushed.

V. F. D.—The Deluge Engine Co. were out for practice on the corner of Government and Yates streets last evening.

DOGS impounded and unclaimed will be sold by auction at 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday.

The presentment of the Grand Jury states that they visited the gaol and armory and found them in a very neat and cleanly condition, great credit being due to Mr. Stewart, the officer in charge. They also found the hospital in a state of cleanliness; but they remark that the building is totally unfit for hospital purposes and advise that a new and commodious structure be erected on the lots donated by the Vancouver Coal Company.

A petition to the Governor-General of Canada praying for a mitigation of the sentence of three months' imprisonment imposed on Mr. Richard Nightingale by Judge Crease on a verdict of common assault is in circulation and receiving numerous signatures. It sets forth that the defendant has hitherto borne a good character for probity and industry and during the past four years has proved himself a valuable servant to the community in his capacity as a city councillor.

On the 13th inst. D. Smith was summoned by Dr. L. R. McInnes and charged with using threatening language towards him. The defendant was fined $5 and $11.50 costs.

A boom of logs consisting of 500,000 ft. of fir and 80,000 ft. of white pine recently arrived at Carpenter's mill from Comox in tow of the steamer Beaver.

Constable Steward left on the steamer Ada on Sunday for new Westminster with the three Chinese prisoners sentenced to three years' imprisonment at the late Assizes.

On Tuesday evening last the water had reached the tenth level of the Wellington mine and the fire was being rapidly extinguished.

LIQUOR LICENSES.—A meeting of the Liquor Licensing Court will be held at the City Hall at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 2.—News from Qu'Appelle states that there has been difficulty with the Indians. The starving savages became furious, and three of the chiefs were arrested by the Mounted Police as hostages for their good behaviour. This made the trouble worse, and the Indians informed the police that if any attempts were made to remove the prisoners they would take prompt revenge on them. All the chiefs were subsequently released. Trouble is also reported from Fort Ellice, but it will probably have blown over. It is thought quite possible that there may be some exaggeration in the above story, but the informant is straight from Qu'Appelle and vouches for its truthfulness. Colonel Smith and Mr. Acton Burrows, formerly on the Times, leave for the west to-morrow on Government business.

A well attended meeting of the creditors of the Mechanics' Bank was held at Huntingdon yesterday afternoon, Dr. Cameron, M.P.P., in the chair. Resolutions were unanimously passed in favor of throwing the Bank into insolvency, and a petition was adopted to the Minister of Justice asking him to prosecute the directors and officials criminally. A subscription to defray expenses was opened.

The value of goods entered for consumption at this port in July amounted to $1,956,041, against $2,629,238 for the corresponding month of 1878, a decrease of $673,197. The duty collected is $152,073, against $394,627, an increase of $57,445.

PETERBORO', Sept. 2.—Last evening about 8 p.m., Elias P. Leonard, aged 21 years, law student, son of Mr. Thos. Leonard of this town, met his death by drowning in Lovesick Rapids, near Burleigh. The deceased was one of a party who were camping a short distance above the rapids.

MORRISBURG, Ont., Sept. 3.—One of the most diabolical crimes ever perpetrated was committed on Tuesday evening between nine and ten o'clock, near West Winchester, a small village distant about 18 miles north of Morrisburg, on the main road to Ottawa. Robert Brown, a well-to-do farmer and a highly respected resident, and his eldest daughter Ada, a young girl fourteen years of age, were foully murdered in their own home, situated a mile from West Winchester. The weapon used by the murderer was found to have been an axe from the woodshed adjoining the house. Clark Brown, son of the dead man and brother of the dead girl, was arrested on suspicion and confessed the crime. He is believed to be insane.

A Louisville man ran across a half dime of the coinage of 1802 the other day, and he wants $100 for it. Only 10 of the half dimes of that year are known to be in existence, and these fetch high prices.

Morning Dispatch.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Labor troubles are increasing. The Bedford new mill at Keigh has been closed and the old mill operatives rendered idle. The Preston Spinning and Manufacturing Company, owning 45,000 spindles of 750 looms, have commenced to run on short times system. There is not the slightest indication of a settlement of the present strike. The number of strikers is increasing daily and by the end of this week it is expected that with two exceptions every mill in the district will be closed. The operative spinners of Hyde will meet shortly to discuss the question of reduction of the wages of operatives and to decide whether there shall be a stoppage of the mills throughout the whole district. Quite a panic has been created in Glossop by an announcement that Sumner's mills, employing 3,000 hands, will shortly be closed. The Wood Bros. mill, employing an equal number of hands, is about to start running on short-time. As Glossop is entirely dependent on the cotton trade all classes of the community express grave concern regarding the condition.

UNITED STATES.

BOSTON, Sept. 18.—A shocking calamity occurred to-night at a fire in the third story of a tenement house, South Boston. The house was occupied by Germans, nearly all of whom were asleep. Several were burned to death and others badly injured.

Afternoon Dispatch.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—An iron shield has been successfully secured over the fracture in the side of the sunken ironclad Grosser Kurfurst and there is now every probability of raising her.

UNITED STATES.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 19.—The execution of Louis Girelig took place at noon. He murdered Mary McGlew one year ago to-day because she refused to renew a marriage engagement with him.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The ordnance department has telegraphed the commandant of the arsenal at Fort Union, Mexico, to issue arms and ammunition to the Government, not to exceed 300 and one million rounds of cartridges.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19. — The Pennsylvania railroad and Iron Mountain people were in conference yesterday. It is understood an arrangement has been made for pushing the construction of the Texas Pacific road to completion and for close connection between the two roads, whereby there will be a general interchange traffic.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 19.—Not a single new case reported to-day. Three deaths since last evening.

WEST INDIES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A dispatch has been received here from Havana to the effect that slaves of Irenfuegoo in Cincovilla, Cuba, have risen in rebellion against the Spaniards and have joined the patriots taking with them a large portion of their masters' cattle. There is great indignation in Cuba over the massacre of about one hundred and seventy officers who served in the last Cuba revolution on the patriot side, but have of late been residing in different places and following their different avocations. From their past records they were suspected of being in sympathy with the present revolution. Some were killed in their houses before their wives and children's eyes by Spanish troops, and others were taken into the woods and slaughtered.

GERMANY.

STRASBURG, Sept. 19.—Upon the entry into this city of the Emperor of Germany shops were closed and the multitude of houses closed their shutters. Only official buildings were profusely decorated. The German speaking inhabitants formed the bulk of the crowd in the streets, though the French speaking element in Strasburg is still very strong. French newspapers have become more outspoken concerning Alsace and Lorraine and inhabitants have become much more estranged from Germany than they were two years ago when the Emperor visited Strasburg and met with a comparatively cordial reception.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18 — The whole city to-day seems to be devoting itself to the task of waiting for the arrival of the City of Tokio. Kearney, Montgomery and Market streets are now a wilderness of flags, banners, shields, portraits and mottoes. Preparations are still going on and every hour adds to display. It is foggy outside, but arrangements for signalling the approach of the steamer by guns will avoid any surprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—In default of the arrival of the City of Tokio this morning citizens have been utilizing time in adding to the decorative display and the principal streets now present a most inextricable maze of parti-colored ornaments. Thousands of small flags are stretched from building to building, causing thoroughfares, as one prosaic minded individual remarked, to look like the backyard of a Chinese wash-house. To a great extent, however, the designs are in good taste and have a brilliant effect. There is but little probability of any demonstration to-day, as unless the steamer is telegraphed within the next half hour the reception will be postponed till to-morrow.

AFRICA.

LONDON, Sept. 18—The South African cable between Natal and Mozambique and the section from Mozambique to Zanzibar will be finished before the 20th inst., which will place South Africa within nine days' communication with England.

Evening Dispatch.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Thomas C. Scott, a well-known agricultural authority, writes that Government and trade estimates show the surplus of wheat in America, Russia and the east will be 505,000 quarters less than the aggregate deficiency of various countries and a rise in the price of breadstuffs may therefore be anticipated.

Three thousand persons are now utterly penniless in Middlesborough.

UNITED STATES.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 17.—A special to the Pioneer Press from Winnipeg says advices from Wood Mountain report a fight between Indians, who crossed the line after buffalo, and United States soldiers. Nine Indians were killed and three Americans and two chiefs wounded.

Miscellaneous.

The programme of the Nihilists of Russia, as now summed up, runs thus: 1. Security of personal freedom (habeas corpus). 2. Religious liberty. 3. Freedom of the press, of speech and of association. 4. Self-government of cities, of districts and of provinces. 5. The assemblies of the elected representatives of the people shall control the administration. 6. Investigation of the economical and social condition of the people. 7. General amnesty.—From Land and Liberty, St. Petersburg.

Perhaps the heartiest laugh during the Tichborne trial was produced by the Attorney-General, the present Lord Coleridge, who, reading a letter from the Claimant to his "dear mamma" said "it finishes with this edifying piece of piety." 'God bless you, and may our Holy Mother protect you,' and although he possibly did not mean it, it reads, 'protect you from your affectionate son R. C. Tichborne.'"

An English wife and mother living in Chelsea went to sleep on a box in the kitchen a fortnight ago with a baby in her arms. When she was aroused about midnight she found that the child had fallen from her lap into a pail half full of dirty water and been drowned. Medical evidence showed that the child was well nourished but its inside was full of soapsuds. The baby evidently fell head first into the dirty water, and was thus suffocated.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom. It restores grey hair to its original color. It makes the scalp white and clean. It cures dandruff and humors and falling out of the hair. It furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a hair dressing. It is the most economical preparation ever offered to the public, as its effects remain a long time, making only an occasional application necessary. It is recommended and used by eminent medical men, and officially indorsed by the State Assayer of Massachusetts. The popularity of Hall's Hair Renewer has increased with the test of many years, both in this country and in foreign lands, and it is now known and used in all the civilized countries of the world. For sale by all dealers. 5dw

DR. SPINNEY, well known as the founder of the Montreal (C. E.) Medical Institute, and late Proprietor of the SPINNEYVILLE INFIRMARY would most respectfully inform his patients and the afflicted generally, that he still continues to treat chronic and nervous diseases with unparalleled success.

—EFFECTED BY—

California Elastic Truss!

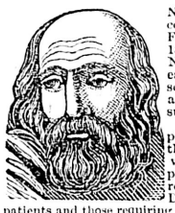

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS CO., W. J. Horne Proprietor—Dear Sir: I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of rupture of thirty years' standing, by one of your incomparable Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago. I cannot describe the suffering, both physically and mentally, that I have undergone during that period; and now I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the ease and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect supporter. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on and feel that I am PERFECTLY CURED. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer anyone to me on the subject of its merits I am truly yours, ALFRED J. BURKE,

1. That such part of the City bounded on the North by Johnson street, on the South by Fort street, on the East by Broad street and on the West by the Water Frontage be hereby declared within the Fire Limits of the City of Victoria. The centre of Johnson to centre of Fort from centre of Broad shall be limits referred to above.

2. All Buildings hereafter erected within the Fire Limits shall have their outside Walls and party Walls made of Brick, Stone or other incombustible material and such outside Walls shall extend four feet above Wall Plate of Roof, and party Walls shall also extend to same height above Wall Plate of Roof. Roofs shall be covered with such material as will afford protection against Fire and the Walls shall be so constructed as to separate all Wood Work thoroughly and completely of the interior and exterior of such Building from all and every part of the interior and exterior of any adjoining Building. If the apex of Roof should exceed the height of Fire Walls, then the Roof must be covered with such material as will afford protection against Fire. The term Building, as applied in this Section, shall not include Privies or Sheds for storage of Coal, Wood or Wharf Sheds.

3. All Repairs to Buildings constructed of brick, stone, or other incombustible materials, shall be made to conform to this Ordinance.

4 The Wooden Building within the said Fire Limits shall not be altered or changed without the written permission of the Chief Engineer of the Victoria Fire Department, approved by a majority of the Fire Wardens, which permit shall specify fully the alterations or changes required, and no such permit shall be given if any increase will be made by the proposed change or alteration in the size of any Wooden Building within the said Limits, or if such repairs or alterations will increase the value of such building more than Twenty-five per cent. The applications therefor and a copy of each of such permits shall be kept on file in the office of the City Clerk.

5. No Building within the said Fire Limits shall be removed except to a portion of the same lot on which it stands or to a point outside the Fire Limits.

6. Whenever any building shall be by any means so much injured as to be, in the judgment of the Chief Engineer and a majority of the Fire Wardens, a dangerous nuisance, or when any Wooden Building within the said Fire Limits shall, in the judgment of the Chief Engineer and a majority of the Fire Wardens, be damaged by fire to the extent of one-half or more of its actual value, the Chief Engineer shall cause to be served upon the owner or person having control thereof a notice requiring such person to remove the same forthwith, and the person receiving such notice shall within ten days after receiving the same comply with the requirements thereof.

7. One Story Buildings—Foundations to be not less than eighteen inches in thickness and not less than eighteen inches in the hard clay or gravel, as the case may be, brick walls to be not less than twelve inches thick. Two Story Buildings—Foundations to be not less than twenty-two inches thick and not less than eighteen inches in the hard clay or gravel, as the case may be. Brick Walls—Ground floor to be not less than seventeen inches thick; first floor not less than twelve inches thick.

8. 9. The Chief Engineer of the Victoria Fire Department and the Fire Wardens are required to see that the provisions of this Bylaw are enforced and to make complaints in the Police Court for violation thereof.

10. This Bylaw may be cited for all purposes as "The Bylaw for Prohibiting the Erection of Wooden Buildings, 1879."
